LOCATION DALAMAN

Dalaman is an area of natural beauty, located between the sea and the mountains and benefiting from its proximity to many areas of interest both historical and geographic.

The town is ideally situated close to many resort areas such as Dalyan, Gocek, Sarigerme.

Unlike Fethiye and other vibrant holiday resorts Dalaman is still very much a quiet region with unspoilt beaches, ancient ruins and parks.

The Akkaya Valley is a year-round holiday community in the most beautiful surroundings, with apartments scattered widely across a mountainside, amongst pine trees, olive groves and meadows and overlooking an emerald green lake. Akkaya is Mediterranean Turkey at its most secluded and unspoilt, yet it is just 20 minutes from Dalaman international airport, which is now served by Easy Jet and year-round charter flights from the UK.

It is also close to the new golf course at Sarigerme and excellent beaches, including the turtle beach at Iztuzu, while the marinas of Gocek are only 15 minutes away.

The surrounding mountains are perfect for exploring on foot; and the area's trails are ideal from mountain biking. There is fishing on the Akkaya Lake or white water rafting further upstream on the Dalaman River.

The Secret Valley

Waking up in with the sings of birds in your luxury villa within the greens; beginning the day with a fascinating lake view when you walk through your balcony; having your breakfast consisting of many vegetables and fruits that grow organically in a unique restaurant on trees and over a river flowing your feet; taking your private boat tied to a pier on the lake out to secret canyon in the following hours, lying on unique white sands on the natural islands through canyon; fishing salmons in this unique river with the fishhook you bring together, swimming in this untouched waters coming from mountains in order to cool off...
